Dear Andrew,

Thank you for inviting BOND to engage with the consultation process for the proposed Poverty Impact Fund.

It has generally been met with enthusiasm and constructive suggestions by our members. I hope their collective input is useful to you and please do come back to us for further clarity on any of the points raised, if necessary.

I know that BOND members look forward to a continuing dialogue with you and your team as further work is done on other areas of interest beyond funding mechanisms, such as policy, strategy and the role you envisage for UK NGOs in international development.

We stand ready to assist with, facilitate and engage in that dialogue in whichever ways you feel would be most useful.

With very best wishes,

Nick Roseveare
Chief Executive
